THE HONORABLE CHIEF JUSTICE AND JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF NEW MEXICO

MEMBERS OF THE NEW MEXICO
LEGISLATURE

Pursuant to §34-9-3 NMSA 1978, we are pleased to present for your review the 73rd Fiscal Year Annual Report of the New Mexico Judicial Branch of Government.

The Judicial Branch is now faced with more complex problems of administration than at any time in its past. The continually increasing demands by the people of the State for services at every level of the judicial system is requiring a re-examination of the interactions between employees, staff relationships, duties and the new technologies now available to them. Electronic data processing must be carefully utilized if we are to maintain a high degree of judicial expediency.

During the past year, we have reviewed the use of various data processing systems, word processing systems and other computer-related efforts. Considerable progress is being made through the use of these systems in processing information for use by the Judicial Branch.

We appreciate the efforts of the Legislature in assisting the Judiciary to maintain systems which place the State of New Mexico in a position as a national leader in progressive judicial management and service to the people of the state.

Respectfully submitted,

Edward J. Baca

There were two cases disposed of during the 73rd fiscal year that had a direct impact on the average time taken to dispose of all cases. One was a death penalty case, State vs. Finnell, and the other, civil case Duke City vs. Ponderosa. It took over three years to bring these two cases to conclusion. These figures are not included in the statistics above.

The Supreme Court maintains a Miscellaneous Docket in which all matters are filed that are not assigned to the regular court docket. There were a total of 87 matters docketed: Habeas Corpus 25, Certiorari 21, Mandamus 20, Miscellaneous 21.

The Court also maintains separate dockets for petitions filed pursuant to Rule 37, Rule 60, Rule 46 and Rule 43.1. There were 324 petitions filed, 259 Rule 37's, 23 Rule 60s, 41 Rule 46's and 1 Rule 43.1. Rule 37 petitions are filed pursuant to the Rules of Criminal Procedure for District Courts, requesting an extension of six months to bring a defendant to trial. Rules 60, 46 and 43.1 are filed seeking extensions pursuant to the Children's Code Rules pertaining to adjudicatory hearings.

Original proceedings, motions and petitions for extraordinary writs are heard by a panel of three justices each Wednesday, unless otherwise directed by the Court. The panels for the hearings are assigned by the Chief Justice each month on a rotating basis. The Court disposes of these matters either by Order or by written opinion. The Court considered and heard a total of 82 matters on their motion-day docket.

Petitions for Writ of Certiorari are submitted to the full Court without hearing. The remainder of the cases are placed on the General Calendar for disposition.

*As counsel has only 30 days to file a skeleton transcript after the filing of the Notice of Appeal, no table was prepared on the Notice of Appeal to Docketing.

The Compilation Commission is charged with the publication and distribution of the New Mexico Statutes and the New Mexico Reports. The statutes contain the laws of New Mexico and the Reports contain the opinions of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. This agency received its initial funding from the Legislature through the General Fund for re-codification and publication of the statutes, and generates its operational funds from the sale of the statutes and books. Of the 1,000 sets of statutes ordered for distribution by the Commission, 982 sets were issued to State agencies. The individual agencies pay for the updates every year. There have been 2,056 partial sets issued containing only the laws relevant to the operation of the agency requesting the partial set. The partial set updates are also paid for by the agencies.

I. APPEALS FILED

A total of 730 new cases were filed with the court during the past fiscal year, a significant increase over the previous high of 629 in 1983-84. This was the second year of operation under the Supreme Court's Order, effective June 17, 1983, transferring jurisdiction of certain appeals to the Court of Appeals. The number of filings per year has increased from 561 in 1982-83, prior to the jurisdictional change, to 629 in 1983-84 and 730 in 1984-85. The court's personnel has remained at a fixed level during this period. The following table depicts the number of appeals filed by month for the fiscal year. (Figures for previous fiscal years are provided for comparison.)

	1984-85	1983-84	1982-83	1981-82
July	59	41	39	61
August	55	44	51	46

May	57	64	57	44
June	78	54	52	58

The court had 331 cases at issue at the end of the fiscal year. This figure does not include other cases which have been appealed, but have not yet become at issue.

COURT OF APPEALS
July 1, 1984 through Jun- 30, 1985

A breakdown of appeals by category is as follows:

Civil Appeals

Administrative Appeals	19
Docket and Affirm	6
Interlocutory Appeals	42
Other	404
Total Civil Appeals	471

Criminal Appeals

State Appeals	24
Defendant Appeals	209
Interlocutory Appeals	26
Total Criminal Appeals	259

Criminal appeals refers only to criminal substantive cases in this category. Free process was granted in 202 of the 730 actions brought on appeal.

The Court of Appeals operates under two sets of procedural rules. Most civil cases proceed under the New Mexico Rules of Civil Appellate Procedure. Criminal, Children's Court, Worker's Compensation and Domestic Relations appeals proceed under separate appellate rules. These appeals are initiated with the court by the filing of a docketing statement, which includes a statement of the case, issues to be presented on appeal and a list of supporting authorities. The docketing statement is then screened by the Court's Prehearing Division, which consists of seven staff attorneys and one secretary.

The following table represents a breakdown of docketing statements filed during the past fiscal year:

Docketing Statements Filed

Criminal	233
Worker's Compensation	92
Domestic Relations	47
Children's Court	9
Total Filed	381

Once the docketing statement is filed and reviewed, the case may be placed on one of four calendars. General, legal and limited calendars contemplate a full briefing process. A case put on a summary calendar, proposing summary affirmance, reversal or dismissal, may be summarily disposed of by the court unless the party opposing the proposed disposition convinces the court to recalendar the case.

The following calendar assignments were rendered in these cases:

Limited Calendar	95
Legal Calendar	6
Summary Disposition	269
Pending	11
Total	381

The following calendar reassignments were rendered in response to memos filed by parties opposing proposed calendarings on cases originally assigned to summary calendar.

Summary Cases

Reassigned to Non-summary	98
Reassign to Summary	51
Disposed without Opposition	103
Disposed with Opposition	77
Total Disposed on Summary	180
Percent of Cases Assigned to Summary and Disposed On Summary	67%
Percent of Cases Disposed On Summary (of cases calendared)	49%

II. DISPOSITIONS

The court rendered a total of 522 dispositions during the 1984-85 fiscal year, or approximately 75 dispositions per judge. Dispositions are broken down into opinions, dispositive orders, and transfers or certifications to the New Mexico Supreme Court. A breakdown by month is as follows:

	Opinion	Order	Transfer/Certify
July	29	4	7
August	32	4	7
September	22	4	2
October	31	2	1
November	37	2	6

February	35	1	1
March	32	2	5
April	42	9	3
May	47	7	0
June	42	7	1
Totals	421	49	38

The 421 opinions figure actually represents 435 dispositions due to consolidation of cases. Of the 421 opinions filed by the court, 144 were formal and 277 were memorandum.

The opinion dispositions are further broken down by result in the following table:

III. MOTIONS

The court rendered 944 nonfinal dispositions in pending appeals on motions filed with the court. A breakdown of these motions is as follows:

Motions for Extension of Time		509
Briefs	378
Transcripts	24
Skeleton Tr./Dock. Statement	107
Motions for Stay		3
Oral Argument		19
Docket and Affirm		6

Of the 66 petitions for certiorari granted, 20 were later quashed by the Supreme Court.

V. AVERAGE TIME TO DISPOSE OF APPEAL BY CATEGORY

The increase in the number of appeals filed during the past two years has resulted in a corresponding increase in the length of time for disposition of cases. The following tables depict the average time to dispose of appeals, broken down by category:

As the tables show, while the court continues to dispose of cases on summary calendar and priority cases (interlocutory appeals and children's court cases) quickly, disposition time for other cases which go to opinion is increasing. The increase is attributable to the caseload increase which the court has experienced.
